

Celebrating Success

Continuing our tradition of celebrating successes and sharing them with our clients and colleagues, KellyJones is proud to announce that Michael Kelly and Victoria Shute have, once again, been recognised in the Best Lawyers Australia List for 2016/2017.

Michael has now featured in the list for six successive years, and Victoria for four.

Michael Kelly listed in South Australia for Government Practice.

Victoria Shute listed in South Australia for Planning and Environmental Law.

Best Lawyers Australia is compiled using confidential and independent evaluations from leading legal professionals, without application or payment. The list features practitioners from around Australia across a range of commercial legal sectors.

The KellyJones team is dedicated to local government and also provides legal services to not-for-profit organisations. Michael and Victoria's recognition reflects our delivery of the highest standards of legal advice and service to our local government and not-for-profit clients.

Please join us in congratulating Michael and Victoria.
