Seminar 4 CEO and Leaders' Forum

The transition is continuing – make sure your council is in prime position!

KelleyJones Lawyers together with Development Answers is hosting a series of seminars and forums on each stage of the Planning Reform process and the implementation of the Planning, Development and Infrastructure Act 2016.

2017 saw the commencement of Assessment Panels, the Environment and Food Production Areas, the release of the initial Community Engagement Charter, the State Planning Commission and pilot projects for Joint Planning Boards and Infrastructure Schemes.

This year will see the commencement of the accreditation scheme and the development of State Planning Policies, the advancement of the Planning and Design Code and other measures which will have a direct impact on council budgets, resourcing and structure.

This forum is designed for Chief Executive Officers, Directors and General Managers and will provide attendees with a high-level understanding of these changes and how they will impact individual councils at an organisational level.

About

KelleyJones Lawyers

KelleyJones is South Australia's first law firm devoted solely to working with local government. KelleyJones provides dedicated legal, strategic and business support exclusively to South Australia councils and public authorities.

About

Development Answers

Development Answers provides a highly specialised service to private sector and local government clients across South Australia on a wide range of urban and regional development projects, town and community planning, strategic planning and economic development initiatives.

This forum provides an opportunity for Chief Executive Officers, Directors and General Managers to gain understanding of the opportunities and challenges that the transition to the PDI Act will pose over the next 12-18 months as our new planning and development system transitions to full operation.

Forum Outline

The forum will cover the following:

- >Assessment Panel 'health check' – how your Panel should be operating 6 months on from its establishment;
- >the new Accreditation Scheme – how this will impact your staff, Assessment Panel members and organisational structure;
- >the proposed online lodgment system – records management and potential fees/revenue implications;
- >infrastructure schemes and joint planning boards – update;
- >the continuing evolution of the community engagement charter and its resource and other implications for your council; and
- >matters to consider and prepare for, including as relevant for budgeting purposes over the next 12-18 months.

Regional Seminars and Individual Council Seminars

Would you like the KelleyJones and Development Answers teams to deliver these seminars in your region or at your council?

We are more than happy to discuss regional and in-house seminars.

We can offer a range of seminar delivery options, including additional seminars at alternative locations and a web-based option.

If you would like to find out more, please call Victoria Shute at KelleyJones on 8113 7104.

Future Seminars

As the Planning Reforms are enacted into legislation, KelleyJones and Development Answers will host further detailed seminars, forums and masterclasses at each relevant stage of implementation.

If you would like to receive direct updates on the progress of the Planning Reforms and our seminars and masterclasses, register for our Planning Reform Mailing List by emailing Amanda Pix on apix@kelledyjones.com.au.
